CHRIS LEMONIS

22

Head Coach

Sixth Season

The Citadel (1992)

Since arriving in Starkville, Chris Lemonis has guided the Bulldogs to unparalleled success, including capturing Mississippi State's first national championship in 2021. He is the first Division I head coach to reach the College World Series in his first two full seasons as head coach of a program in the Super Regional era (since 1999).

In five seasons at MSU, Lemonis has compiled a 167-93 record (.642 winning percentage) and taken his program to two College World Series appearances. In his first two complete seasons at the helm of the Bulldogs, Lemonis has won 50-plus games, posting a 52-15 record in 2019 and a 50-18 mark in 2021. Lemonis notched his 100th win at MSU in his first 130 games. He is the fastest head coach in program history to reach the 100-win mark.

Lemonis led Mississippi State to its first-ever national championship in 2021 and was named the National Coach of the Year by Baseball America following a 50-18 campaign and an impressive 10-3 showing in the NCAA Tournament. He became the fourth person picked as Baseball America's National Coach of the Year as both an assistant and head coach.

The 18th head coach in the program's storied history, a journey of nearly 40 years came full circle when he was introduced on June 25, 2018, on Adkerson Plaza inside Dudy Noble Field. The son of a 1973 State graduate, Lemonis resided in Starkville as a child and now leads one of the perennial powerhouses in college baseball.

Lemonis not only understands what it takes to get to Omaha as a coach but also as a player. A 1992 graduate of The Citadel, Lemonis added a 1990 appearance in the College World Series as a student-athlete. The appearance makes the Bulldogs one of just three schools in Southern Conference history and the only current conference member to advance to Omaha.

After helping Louisville to seven postseason berths in eight years, the 2013 American Baseball Coaches Association/Baseball America Assistant Coach of the Year headed to Indiana for his first head coaching job with the Hoosier program in 2015.

In each of his head coaching stops, Lemonis has led his team to the NCAA postseason in his first season. He helped the Hoosiers into the NCAA Tournament field during his initial season in Bloomington before he guided Mississippi State to the College World Series in 2019 – his first season in Starkville.

One of the country's top recruiters and player development coaches, Lemonis has seen success at every coaching stop. After helping his alma mater, The Citadel, to five NCAA Regional appearances in 12 seasons as an assistant coach, Lemonis joined college teammate Dan McDonald's staff at Louisville and quickly turned the Cardinals into an Omaha contender.

Overall, Lemonis enters his 30th season as a collegiate coach in 2024, making two College World Series appearances as a head coach, taking three trips to Omaha as an assistant, earning 17 NCAA tournament berths, and aiding in five 50-win seasons. Owning a head coaching record of 308-184-2, Lemonis was also a part of nearly 800 wins as an assistant coach. He is one of three active Division I coaches to win 300 or more games at the Division I level in nine years as a head coach.

RECRUITING AND DEVELOPMENT

Widely regarded as one of the elite recruiters and developers of talent in all of college baseball, a total of 100 student-athletes have been selected in the Major League Baseball Draft under Lemonis' watch, with 18 of those reaching the highest level of professional baseball.

His pupils have earned 35 All-America honors, 18 Freshman All-America laurels, and 94 have signed professional baseball contracts.

Since arriving at Louisville for the 2006-07 academic year, Lemonis has been a part of 14 nationally-ranked recruiting classes, including his first three classes at Mississippi State. His initial Diamond Dawgs recruiting class was tabbed as the No. 12 class nationally by Baseball America and Perfect Game, while it earned the No. 9 ranking from Collegiate Baseball Newspaper. In 2019, he and his staff brought in another top-10 ranked class, finishing as high as No. 6 by Baseball America.

Over his first four seasons in Starkville, Lemonis has tutored 20 picks in the MLB First-Year Player Draft, including four first-rounders and two second-rounders. Sixteen of Lemonis' Indiana players were taken in the MLB Draft in his final four years in Bloomington, and 14 signed professional contracts. He also recruited and coached nine of the Hoosier's school-record 10 MLB Draft choices in 2019.

From 2007-14, Lemonis saw seven-straight classes ranked among the top 30 nationally, including the No. 12 national class for the 2011 recruiting cycle. In 2017, Baseball America revisited the Cardinals' 2013 class, re-ranking it No. 2 in the nation after the on-field success under Lemonis' watch. In 2018, the publication tabbed an un-ranked 2014 recruiting class, including 2015 National Freshman of the Year and 2017 Golden Spikes Award winner Brendan McKay, as the No. 1 class in the publication's re-rankings.

Lemonis mentored and or recruited 47 student-athletes that signed professional contracts after being selected in the MLB Draft during his eight years as the top assistant and recruiting coordinator at Louisville, including a school-record ten selections in the 2010 MLB Draft. He helped produce ten first or second-round draft choices over seven years.

To date, 15 Cardinals who were recruited by and played for Lemonis have gone on to reach the big leagues. Those players include Nick Burdi, Adam Duvall, Chris Dominguez, Cody Ege, Adam Engel, Chad Green, Dean Kiekhefer, Matt Koch, Trystan Magnuson, Justin Marks, Kyle McGrath, Brendan McKay, B.J. Rosenberg, Nick Solak, and Tony Zych. Over $28 million in signing bonuses were accrued by Lemonis' Louisville draftees.

TAKING OVER

Inheriting a team that is coming off a trip to the College World Series doesn't always translate into immediate success, but Lemonis was able to build off of that momentum as he began writing his chapter in Mississippi State history.

Along with the second-most single-season victories (52) during the 2019 season, his team also posted the second-best 20-, 30- and 40-game starts (18-2, 25-5, 32-8) in program history. He joined Pat McMahon as the only two Diamond Dawg dugout bosses to lead the program to the College World Series in their initial campaign, and his 52 wins were the most by a first-year SEC head coach in the conference's history.

State saw four student-athletes earn first-team All-SEC, tying for the fourth-most selections in a single season in program history behind the five selections in 1949, 1971, and 1977. Left-handed pitcher Ethan Small posted one of the most dominant seasons on the mound in program history, leading the nation in strikeouts and earning National and Southeastern Conference Pitcher of the Year honors. Right-handed pitcher JT Ginn was tabbed National Freshman of the Year and Southeastern Conference Freshman of the Year.

Small, Tanner Allen, Justin Foscue, and Jake Mangum earned top honors from the SEC, and Foscue, Mangum, and Small grabbed at least one first-team All-America honor. Small became Mississippi State's seventh unanimous first-team All-American, joining Jeff Brantley (1985) and Chris Stratton (2012) as the only pitchers to accomplish the feat.

On the team side of things, State's offense led the nation in doubles to mark the first time in program history the Diamond Dawgs led the NCAA in an offensive or pitching category. The 166 doubles set a school record and ranked No. 4 all-time in SEC history.

MISSISSIPPI STATE

In 2023, Lemonis saw freshman outfielder Dakota Jordan earn Freshman All-American honors by Perfect Game. Awards continued to roll in as Hunter Hines and Colton Ledbetter earned ABCA All-Region honors. Hines also picked up First Team All-SEC honors, and Jordan was named to the All-SEC Freshman team. During the season, the Dawgs hit the fourth most homers in program history with 91, and freshman Ross Highfill became the first player since 2017 to hit three homers in a single game.

Following the 2022 season, Lemonis and the Bulldogs had six players drafted in the MLB Draft, increasing his total to 25 during his time in Starkville. He has extended his streak of having a first-round pick drafted as Landon Sims went early in the 2022 MLB Draft. Not only did the Bulldogs have success in the MLB Draft, but RJ Yeager was named Third Team All-American by the ABCA, NCBWA, and Collegiate Baseball Newspapers. Hunter Hines earned Freshman All-American honors by Collegiate Baseball, NCBWA, and D1 Baseball. The Diamond Dawgs also succeeded in the classroom during the 2022 season as 24 players earned SEC Academic Honor Roll honors, and Yeager was named Third Team CoSIDA Academic All-American.

In 2021, the Bulldogs had five players drafted from their national championship squad, while a total of 19 players have been drafted by Major League Baseball during Lemonis' time in Starkville, including at least one first-rounder in each year of his tenure. For the second straight full season, the Mississippi State baseball program saw a pair of student-athletes honored as All-Americans by the American Baseball Coaches Association in Tanner Allen and Landon Sims.

In his first season at the helm of the Diamond Dawgs, Lemonis became the winningest first-year head coach in SEC history and, in the process, led the 2019 edition to the second-most victories in program history at 52 (54; 1989). The 40 victories over MSU's first 50 games marked the third-most in the first 50 games of a season in program history and set the tone for State's second-straight trip to the College World Series.

Lemonis became one of just three SEC head coaches to advance to the College World Series in their inaugural season in the conference, joining Jake Gibbs (Ole Miss, 1972) and fellow Diamond Dawg skipper Pat McMahon (Mississippi State, 1998).

Four Diamond Dawgs earned All-American honors during Lemonis' first season, while left-handed pitcher Ethan Small was tabbed National Pitcher of the Year (College Baseball Foundation; American Baseball Coaches Association) and right-handed pitcher JT Ginn earned the National Freshman of the Year honor (Collegiate Baseball, Perfect Game). Ginn and Small each earned specialty awards from the SEC, grabbing the conference's Freshman and Pitcher of the Year, respectively.

A school-record-tying 11 Diamond Dawgs heard their names called in the 2019 Major League Baseball First Year Player Draft, including three taken in the first ten rounds. Small became the 15th Diamond Dawg taken in the first round of the MLB Draft, while SEC career hits leader Jake Mangum (4th; New York Mets) and Colby White (6th; Tampa Bay) each went in the first ten rounds. The 11 selections were No. 3 nationally in 2019.

INDIANA

During his time at Indiana, Lemonis' teams averaged 35.3 wins per season, including a 40-win campaign during his final season in Bloomington.

Lemonis left a strong legacy at Indiana as he tied for the most NCAA postseason appearances by a head coach in school history and owned three of the eight all-time NCAA Tournament appearances. The Hoosiers were the only Big Ten program to appear in three NCAA Regionals during his four-year span in the conference and one of two to make back-to-back appearances from 2015-18. He became the first coach in program history to earn three NCAA regional berths in his first four years, finishing with a 141-91-2 overall record.

During his time leading the Cream and Crimson, 41 student-athletes earned Academic All-Big Ten honors, 25 were selected All-Big Ten, and 14 signed professional contracts. His 2018 squad advanced to the NCAA Tournament and produced a program record of 16 Academic All-Big Ten performers and three first-team All-Big Ten honorees.

The 2018 campaign saw Lemonis' squad compile a 40-19 record and earn an at-large berth as the No. 2 seed in the NCAA Austin Regional. The Hoosiers reached the regional title game after defeating Texas Southern and eliminating No. 25 Texas A&M. Indiana fell to eventual College World Series participant Texas, with a trio of Hoosiers earning all-regional honors. Eight IU student-athletes earned All-Big Ten honors – including three first-teamers – representing the program's most since 2004.

The Hoosiers were among the Big Ten leaders in several categories in 2018, ranking first in earned run average (3.09), slugging percentage (.448), home runs (68) and total bases (905), second in batting average (.284) and third in runs scored (360). That season, IU was ranked by at least one of the major publications for 15 of the 16 weeks of the regular season, including nine-straight weeks in the top 15. Four Hoosiers were selected in the MLB Draft following the eighth 40-win season in program history.

The Hoosiers produced a 34-24-2 record a season prior and earned the No. 2 seed at the 2017 NCAA Lexington Regional. With the postseason appearance, Lemonis became the first coach in program history to make two regionals in his first three seasons as IU's skipper. Indiana finished as the highest-rated RPI team in the Big Ten (34th), while seven Hoosiers garnered All-Big Ten honors.

In year two at the helm in 2016, Lemonis' club posted a 32-24 overall record and a 15-9 mark in Big Ten play. On a national level, the Hoosier pitching staff finished second in walks allowed per nine innings (2.31), fifth in WHIP (1.15) and strikeout-to-walk ratio (3.17), 11th in team ERA (3.09) and 25th in hits allowed per nine innings (8.02). Three IU student-athletes were tabbed All-Big Ten, including first-team selection Kyle Hart. The trio of Ryan Fineman, Luke Miller, and Scotty Bradley each brought home all-freshman honors from the conference

During Lemonis' debut season of 2015, Indiana won 12 of its last 17 games – nine coming against RPI top 50 teams – and earned an at-large berth into the NCAA Nashville Regional. Three Hoosiers earned a spot on the NCAA Regional all-tournament team, while two were tabbed All-Big Ten, and a pair was selected to the Big Ten All-Freshman Team. Lemonis' squad owned a 12-5 mark vs. ranked opponents in 2015, including five top-15 wins.

An advocate of playing the game the right way, Lemonis' teams hold three out of the four highest single-season fielding percentages in Indiana history, including a school-record mark of .979 in 2017.

LOUISVILLE

As an assistant coach, Lemonis' imprint in elevating the Louisville program to new heights was evident. The former Cardinals' recruiting coordinator aided Louisville to three College World Series appearances (2007, 2013, 2014) and a 359-159 (.693) record during his eight seasons there.

Louisville was college baseball's winningest program during the eight years that Lemonis was on staff, including back-to-back 50-win seasons in 2013 and 2014. Following the program's second trip to the College World Series in 2013, Lemonis was named the ABCA/Baseball America Assistant Coach of the Year.

He averaged 39.2 victories per year during his career in an assistant role (784 wins), bolstered by a 44.9 wins-per-season average at Louisville. The Cardinals were college baseball's winningest program during those eight years and made the program's first three trips to Omaha.

Lemonis helped the Cardinals produce 18 All-Americans, 61 all-conference selections, a trio of conference player of the year award winners, two conference newcomer of the year honorees, and the first national "of the year" award winner in the program's history. Louisville won four BIG EAST championships in the school's final five years in the conference, and he saw U of L set the school record for wins in a season three different times, including a program-best 51 victories during the 2013 season.

Louisville became a hotbed for professional talent during Lemonis' time in the Derby City, as 41 Cardinals were selected in the MLB Draft from 2007-14, and another seven inked free agent contracts with professional teams. Of those, 14 have made it to the big leagues, including three from the 2013 College World Series team.

From 2007-2014, Louisville accomplished many program firsts on its way to becoming a perennial Omaha contender. Fourteen different Cardinals produced 43 different All-America honors, including first-team All-Americans Nick Burdi (2013 & 2014), Chris Dominguez (2009), Kyle Funkhouser (2014), and Neil Holland (2010). Dominguez and Funkhouser led a crop of nine student-athlete to earn Freshman All-America accolades under Lemonis.

Dominguez claimed the 2008 (Co) and 2009 BIG EAST Player of the Year awards, marking just the second time in conference history a student-athlete won back-to-back Player of the Year awards (Steve Stanley, Notre Dame; 2001 & 2002). Burdi won the first-ever national "of the year" award when he was tabbed the nation's top closer and winner of the 2014 National Collegiate Baseball Writers Association Stopper of the Year.

Along with Dominguez, Jeff Gardner claimed the 2014 American Athletic Conference Player of the Year award, while Justin Marks (2007) and Jared Ruxer (2012) each earned BIG EAST Freshman of the Year awards. Thirty-eight difference Louisville student-athletes totaled 61 all-conference honors, including a school-record ten selections to the All-BIG EAST squads in 2012 and 2013. The 2010 (BIG EAST) and 2014 (AAC) squads each totaled a then-school-standard four first-team all-conference selections.

The accolades for Lemonis' pupils weren't limited to the regular season, as 27 Cardinals earned a total of 29 NCAA All-Region honors. The quartet of Dominguez (2007), Justin Marks (2009), Coco Johnson (2013), and Cole Sturgeon (2014) all claimed NCAA Regional MVP honors, with the 2009 squad grabbing a program-best five all-regional honors. On the conference level, Louisville saw 16 total all-tournament honors earned by 13 different Cardinals.

THE CITADEL

Lemonis arrived at The Citadel as a student-athlete, transitioned into an assistant coaching role, and ultimately moved his way up to associate head coach before finishing his 17-year journey on the Charleston, South Carolina campus.

During his time at The Military College of South Carolina – one of the six United States senior military colleges – the Bulldogs made six of their 13 all-time appearances in the NCAA Tournament and made the program's only appearance at the College World Series. The 1990 team is one of just three Southern Conference programs (Duke, Wake Forest) and the only active member to make it to Omaha.

Lemonis' coaching tenure spanned 12 seasons (1995-2006), included seven All-Americans and two Freshman All-Americans, saw 17 student-athletes selected in the Major League Baseball Draft, and ushered in 35 offensive school records. Two of his Bulldog pupils reached the big leagues – Britt Reames and Dallas McPherson – while Philip Hartig finished his career ranked No. 7 on the NCAA's career hits chart (360; 1998-2001), with his total now No. 10 all-time in NCAA history.

He was twice tabbed All-Southern Conference as a student-athlete (1989-93) and led the team in home runs on three occasions after redshirting as a freshman and appearing in nine games his second year on campus. Following that, Lemonis started 162 games over his final three seasons and led the Bulldogs with a .367 average, 19 doubles, 52 runs, ten home runs, and 66 RBI as a senior.

A member of the 1993 All-Southern Conference Tournament team, Lemonis still ranks in the top 15 all-time at The Citadel in RBIs (152), home runs (23), and slugging percentage (.538).

Lemonis was inducted into The Citadel Hall of Fame in 2016. He was a two-time All-Southern Conference honoree and a 1990 College World Series team member. Following a successful playing career, Lemonis had a 12-year career as an assistant coach for the Bulldogs.

PERSONAL

Lemonis and his wife, the former Jill MacEldowney, have two daughters, Marissa and Mackenzie. The Myrtle Beach, South Carolina native earned his Bachelor of Science in physical education from The Citadel in 1992 and received his Master of Arts in sport management in 1994.

He is also no stranger to Starkville, as he resided on campus as a newborn during his father's time as a student at State. His father, Thomas, was a 1973 Mississippi State graduate with a degree in electrical engineering.

JUSTIN PARKER

Assistant Coach

First Season

College of Charleston (2004)

Justin Parker enters his first season on the Mississippi State baseball coaching staff, serving as the pitching coach.

Parker joins the Diamond Dawgs staff after spending the last two seasons as the pitching coach at the University of South Carolina. Before joining the Gamecocks, Parker spent three years as the associate head coach/pitching coach at Indiana University.

Parker is widely regarded for his prowess in producing top-quality arms that are selected in the MLB Draft. Nine of the 20 pitchers drafted under his watch have gone in the first 10 rounds.

SOUTH CAROLINA

Parker guided the Gamecocks to 608 strikeouts, which stood as the 17th most in the NCAA (5th SEC) in 2023. Under Parker's guidance, the South Carolina pitching staff tallied 10.1 strikeouts per nine innings, the 20th-best mark in the nation and sixth in the SEC. The Gamecocks also had the 12th-best earned run average in the nation (2nd SEC) at 4.19. Parker helped Jack Mahoney, who had not pitched since 2021, to seven wins and a 4.16 ERA in 17 starts in his junior season. James Hicks had a team-best eight wins and a 3.48 ERA while allowing zero runs in starts in the SEC Tournament and NCAA Regional in Columbia.

During his first season (2022) in Columbia, Parker helped a staff riddled by injuries to 501 strikeouts in 479 innings pitched. He helped Noah Hall, who started in the bullpen, to 76.2 innings pitched and a 3.18 ERA in 10 SEC contests. Will Sanders ranked in the top 10 in the SEC in innings pitched, ERA and strikeouts on his way to a 7-3 overall record and a 3.43 ERA. Cade Austin was named a Freshman All-American by Collegiate Baseball, making 27 appearances with a 5-2 record and a 3.17 ERA.

INDIANA

Parker spent three seasons as the associate head coach/pitching coach at Indiana. His staff with the Hoosiers had a 3.17 ERA and struck out 462 batters in 383 1/3 innings pitched as Indiana went 26-18 with a Big Ten-only schedule in 2021. Four pitchers from Parker's staff were selected in the 2021 MLB Draft including McCade Brown, who was selected in the third round by the Colorado Rockies and Gabe Bierman, a seventh-round pick by the Miami Marlins.

In the shortened 2020 season, Parker helped lead the Hoosiers to a 9-6 record overall, beating No. 11 LSU, No. 30 South Alabama and No. 17 East Carolina. On the mound, the Hoosiers posted a team ERA of 3.56, striking out 134 batters in 129 innings pitched.

In 2019, Parker helped guide the Hoosiers to the 2019 Big Ten Regular-Season title – the seventh in program history and the first for IU since 2014. Indiana earned a No. 2 seed in the NCAA Tournament, finishing the season with an overall record of 37-23 and a Big Ten mark of 17-7. A school-record 10 Hoosiers were selected in the 2019 MLB Draft, including a second-round selection.

UCF

Parker served as the pitching coach at UCF for two seasons. During the 2018 campaign at UCF, Parker's staff posted a 3.32 ERA – only the eighth sub-3.50 ERA season in school history. Pitchers struck out 556 batters - good for second in program history - while the Knights set a new program record with 7.1 hits allowed per nine innings and only gave up 405 hits.

Under Parker in his first season with the Knights in 2017, the pitching staff was one of the best in the nation, finishing 10th in WHIP (1.22), 24th in strikeout-to-walks ratio (2.74), 28th in strikeouts per nine innings (8.9) and 52nd in walks per nine innings (3.26). The crowning achievement for Parker's players was the fifth-best ERA in the nation at 3.00.

Following the 2018 season, Parker and UCF had five pitchers selected in the draft - the most since 2002 - and tied for the second-most ever in school history. Thad Ward (5th Round/Boston Red Sox), JJ Montgomery (7th Round/Baltimore Orioles), Bryce Tucker (14th Round/San Francisco Giants), Eric Hepple (27th Round/Colorado Rockies) and Cre Finfrock (29th Round/Toronto Blue Jays) each heard their names called. UCF's Jason Bahr was a fifth-round selection by the San Francisco Giants in 2017. Robby Howell followed him in the 10th round and went to the Cincinnati Reds. Jordan Scheftz (23rd round/Cleveland Indians) and Andy Rohloff (37th round/San Francisco Giants) also heard their names called after one year under Parker.

JAKE GAUTREAU

Assistant Coach

Seventh Season

Tulane (2011)

Jake Gautreau enters his seventh season on the Mississippi State baseball coaching staff, serving as the recruiting coordinator, hitting, and infield coach.

Gautreau's passion for the game has enabled him to succeed at every level: high school, college, professional, and coaching. The 2019 National Assistant Coach of the Year has an unmatched passion for teaching the game and building relationships that reach far beyond the locker room.

On top of his National Assistant Coach of the Year honor from D1Baseball in 2019, the McAllen, Texas, native led all Texas high schoolers in home runs as a prep junior, earned All-America honors each of his three seasons at Tulane before the San Diego Padres took him with the 14th overall pick in the first round of the 2001 Major League Baseball Draft. As a professional, he rated as a top-10 prospect in the San Diego Padre's organization before transitioning into coaching in 2009 and earning Perfect Game's 'Assistant Ready to Lead' distinction in 2013.

The Conference USA Hall of Famer began his coaching career at his alma mater, Tulane, and he spent five years as an assistant coach before serving as interim head coach during the second half of the 2014 season – his final year at Tulane. Following his stint with the Green Wave, Gautreau spent three years as Certified Player Agent for the Boras Corporation. During his time with the Boras Corporation, he identified and evaluated talent and recruited premier amateur baseball players from across the country, along with helping them prepare for the MLB Draft.

RECRUITING AND DEVELOPMENT

Gautreau has left his mark on both the recruiting and coaching side of the program as he has signed five straight nationally ranked classes, advanced to the College World Series in 2018 and 2019, including leading State to the 2021 National Championship, and helped the Bulldog offense rank among the national leaders annually.

Gautreau's impact was immediately felt in Starkville, as the Bulldogs landed a top-5 class for the 2018 recruiting cycle and owned a top-10 class in 2019-20. He helped secure a top-25 class according to each of the four major recruiting services for the 2018 cycle, while his 2019 recruiting class was ranked as high as No. 5 by D1Baseball and was a consensus top-15 class. The only staff member retained by head coach Chris Lemonis upon his arrival in Starkville in 2018, Gautreau helped the Bulldogs keep first-round draft pick JT Ginn away from the Los Angeles Dodgers.

He has recruited or tutored seven All-Americans and nine Freshman All-Americans. In his five seasons at State, Gautreau has seen Tanner Allen, Justin Foscue, Jake Mangum, and RJ Yeager all earn All-America honors, while Allen and Hunter Hines, and Rowdey Jordan have touted Freshman All-America honors. He also recruited a trio of Freshman All-American pitchers, including back-to-back National Freshman of the Year winners JT Ginn (2019) and Christian MacLeod (2020).

Gautreau has also seen seven of his pupils earn first-team All-Southeastern Conference, including Mangum, during each of his last five seasons on campus. Yeager earned all-conference honors in 2022, while Allen, Foscue, and Mangum all grabbed top all-conference honors in 2019, with Mangum leading the SEC and the NCAA in hits (108). Allen (7) and Foscue (14) each elevated their homerun totals, posted 90-plus hits, and drove in 60-plus runs each during their sophomore seasons.

After seeing seven Bulldogs drafted in his first year on staff, a school-record-tying 11 Mississippi State student-athletes heard their names called in the MLB Draft, a total that ranked No. 3 nationally. The 2020 MLB Draft saw two of Gautreau's understudies selected in the first round. The duo of Justin Foscue and Jordan Westburg – both undrafted out of high school – were taken with the No. 14 (Texas) and No. 30 (Baltimore) overall picks to mark the second time in program history MSU had two student-athletes drafted in the first round (1985; Clark & Palmeiro).

His final recruiting class at Tulane was tabbed the No. 4 class in the country by Perfect Game for the 2013 cycle, while he has garnered five top-25 classes in his time at State.

In nine years as a collegiate coach, Gautreau has seen 37 of his pupils taken in the Major League Baseball Draft, and a total of 29 have inked professional contracts. In 2010, he mentored Rob Segedin and helped turn him into a third-round pick of the New York Yankees, and he eventually reached the big leagues with the Los Angeles Dodgers.

MISSISSIPPI STATE

Gautreau has been a part of three (2018, 2019 & 2021) College World Series appearances during his time at Mississippi State and helped the team to the 2021 College World Series Championship.

Under the coaching of Gautreau, sophomore Hunter Hines etched his name into the State record book. Hines became the first Dawg since Brent Rooker in 2017 to hit 20 or more homers in a season. Hines hit 22 on the season, the sixth most in program history for a single season. As a team, the Dawgs hit 91 homers, the fourth most in a single season, as they had two players with 12 or more, and 11 players hit a bomb on the season. Freshman Ross Highfill became the first player since Rooker in 2017 to hit three home runs in a single game when he accomplished the feat against Lipscomb on March 11.

The 2022 season saw the Dawgs rank 26th in the nation in home runs by hitting 95 as they had four players hit 14 or more home runs on the season, while 12 players on the team hit a bomb on the season. The 95 home runs on the season are the third most in a single season in school history. Infielder RJ Yeager led the team in hitting (.317), home runs (18), doubles (15), and RBIs (56) en route to First Team All-SEC honors, as well as earning three All-American Teams (ABCA, NCBWA, and Collegiate Baseball Newspaper).

Leading the offensive attack that led the Dawgs to the first-ever National Championship. He guided Tanner Allen to a breakout season. Allen hit .383 on the season with 19 doubles, 11 home runs, and 66 RBI as he was named Southeastern Conference Player of the Year. Allen was a unanimous First-Team All-American selection following the season. Allen's 100-hit campaign in 2021 was only the 7th time a Diamond Dawg collected 100 or more hits in a season, and it was the third time since Gautreau has been at MSU. The 50 wins during the 2021 season was only the sixth time in program history with 50 or more wins.

The 2020 season saw only 16 games played before the COVID-19 pandemic shut down the college baseball season; however, Gautreau had five hitters boasting .300 batting averages or better. Of those five, freshman Kamren James ranked among the top rookies in the SEC in six offensive categories and was one of only seven SEC freshmen to end the season with a .300 average.

The duo of Justin Foscue and Jordan Westburg were each drafted in the first round of the MLB Draft, while JT Ginn was picked in the second round by the New York Mets. Mississippi State's three picks in the first two rounds of the draft tied for the most over the first 60 picks in the 2020 draft.

Gautreau has tutored the SEC's hits leader during the 2018 and 2019 seasons, as Jake Mangum posted the first back-to-back 100-hit seasons in MSU history and just the fourth occurrence in SEC history. In the process, Mangum ended his career as the SEC's all-time hits leader and finished No. 4 on the NCAA's career list with 383 hits over his four seasons. He piled up 209 hits over his last two seasons, including a school single-season record of 108 in 2019.

He helped the freshmen tandem of infielder Tanner Allen and outfielder Rowdey Jordan earn Freshman All-America honors at the conclusion of 2018. Allen, who also earned a spot on the SEC All-Freshman Team, started all 68 contests during his rookie season and hit .287 with 28 extra-base hits and ranked No. 2 on the team with 45 RBIs. Jordan hit .321 during his freshman campaign, starting 51 contests and ranking No. 2 on the team with seven home runs.

In 2019, Gautreau saw his offensive unit rank among the top five nationally in four different offensive categories. The 2019 squad piled up a nation's-leading 166 doubles – the first MSU team to lead the country in an offensive category in program history – and also ranked among the top five in hits (2nd; 755), runs scored (4th; 530) and batting average (5th; .315). The doubles total also ranks No. 4 all-time in SEC history.

In 2018, Gautreau's impact was immediately apparent as a recruiter and in his approach to coaching. After a slow start at the plate, State raised its batting average by nearly 20 points over the season's final two months, leading the way in a dramatic run to the program's 10th trip to Omaha.

MSU hit just .271 from February to April and scored 5.1 runs per game. Beginning in May, the offense saw a jump in production, hitting .289 during that stretch and scoring 7.7 runs per contest. The uptick in offensive production also saw the offense produce RBIs on a much higher level, jumping from 4.6 to 6.9 runs batted in per game while cutting down the strikeout number by 1.5 per game.

TULANE

In five seasons at his alma mater, Gautreau helped Tulane rebuild the foundation that he helped establish as a student-athlete on the Uptown campus. He led the recruiting efforts that landed the No. 4 national class during this final recruiting cycle with the program and also served as the interim head coach in 2014.

His recruiting prowess was on display as Perfect Game tabbed the 2013 signing class the No. 4 class, and for good reason, as it included three Baseball America Top-500 prospects in shortstop Stephen Alemais, catcher Jake Rogers and right-handed pitcher J.P. France. France spent his graduate transfer season at Mississippi State in 2018 and was a 14th-round pick by the Houston Astros in the 2018 MLB Draft. Alemais and Rogers were selected in the third round of the 2016 Draft, and Rogers made his MLB debut in July 2019.

From 2010-14, he tutored some of the finest hitters to come through Tulane. In 2010, Rob Segedin boasted a .434 batting average to rank second all-time on the program's single-season charts, becoming just the fifth player in school history to top the .400 mark for a season. Along with Segedin (2010), three others joined him as being picked in the MLB Draft: Garrett Cannizaro (2013), Brennan Middleton (2013), and Jeremy Schaffer (2012).

ON-FIELD SUCCESS

His nine-year career in professional baseball saw him spend time with the San Diego Padres, Cleveland Indians, and New York Mets organizations. Gautreau reached as high as Triple-A during his professional career after being drafted with the No. 14 overall pick of the 2001 Major League Baseball Draft. During his time in professional baseball, Gautreau moved from third base to second base and was named the No. 3 second base prospect in baseball by Baseball America.

During his collegiate career, Gautreau helped Tulane to 142 victories in three seasons and the program's first College World Series berth in 2001. In his junior season, he featured a .355 batting average, 44 extra-base hits, and an NCAA-leading 96 RBIs. He was a Golden Spikes Award finalist and a first-team All-America selection as a junior. A two-time Conference USA Player of the Year, Gautreau was named the Conference USA Player of the Decade (1990-2000) in 2005 and was elected to the Conference USA Hall of Fame as a part of the initial induction class in 2019. One of the most decorated players in the history of Tulane baseball, Gautreau was inducted into the Tulane Athletic Hall of Fame in 2007.

Gautreau earned seven All-America honors during his time at Tulane, garnering second-team All-America as a sophomore and third-team laurels as a freshman. He was also a first-team Freshman All-American during the 1999 season. Gautreau finished his collegiate career with a .344 average with 58 home runs, 103 walks, 200 runs scored, 233 RBIs, and 275 hits in three collegiate seasons.

He was also a member of the 2000 USA Baseball Collegiate National Team. Gautreau hit .348 (32-for-92) with seven doubles and four home runs to go with 20 RBI and a .576 slugging percentage. His time with Team USA also included the 2000 XXI Haarlem Baseball Week title, where he earned MVP honors in helping the Red, White, and Blue to a 6-0 record. That summer, the Collegiate National Team posted a 27-3-1 record.

PERSONAL

Gautreau and his wife, the former Erin Dobyanski, have two sons, William and Weston. Erin was a four-year letter winner for Tulane's women's volleyball program. The McAllen, Texas, native earned his Bachelor of Arts in media arts from Tulane in 2011.

Assistant Coach/Camps Coordinator

Sixth Season

Louisville (2010)

In his sixth season as an assistant coach and camps coordinator, Kyle Cheesebrough works alongside Mississippi State head coach Chris Lemonis for the thirteenth straight season in 2024.

In his 14-year career as a college assistant coach, Cheesebrough has used his experience to fill a unique role on each staff. The former college backstop has been tasked with coaching his program's catchers while working with the hitters.

Cheesebrough helped Mississippi State to the College World Series in 2019 and the 2021 national title after spending four years at Indiana University (2015-18), three at the University of Louisville (2012-14), and one year with the University of Pittsburgh (2011). He also spent one season as an undergraduate assistant at Louisville in 2010 while finishing his degree.

As a coach, Cheesebrough has been a part of eight NCAA Tournament teams and made four trips to the College World Series. Along with helping MSU reach Omaha in his first season on staff, Cheesebrough was a part of back-to-back College World Series squads at Louisville. He also made a pair of NCAA Tournament appearances as a student-athlete at U of L, reaching the 2009 Fullerton Super Regional.

RECRUITING AND DEVELOPMENT

Overall, 11 student-athletes Cheesebrough has recruited or coached have earned All-American honors, while seven others have garnered Freshman All-America status. He has worked with 63 all-conference selections during his time as a coach, which includes the trio of Tanner Allen, Justin Foscue, and Jake Mangum, who each earned first-team All-SEC during the 2019 season.

Cheesebrough had a hand in 21 draft picks during the 2019 Major League Baseball First Year Player Draft, as a school-record-tying 11 Mississippi State student-athletes and program-record 10 Indiana student-athletes were selected in the draft. The MSU total ranked No. 3 nationally, while the IU total was tied for No. 5 among NCAA Division I programs. Diamond Dawg catcher Dustin Skelton was picked in the 18th round by the Miami Marlins after posting career highs in every offensive category and throwing out 20 potential base stealers.

In 14 years as a collegiate coach, Cheesebrough has heard 56 of his pupils' names called in the Major League Baseball Draft, with 12 reaching the big leagues. In his first coaching stop at Pittsburgh, both Kevan Smith and Ray Black were selected in the seventh round and have each reached the Major Leagues, while Matt Wotherspoon was drafted in the 34th round and reached the Major Leagues. Eight more big leaguers came during his time at Louisville, including Nick Burdi, Cody Ege, Adam Engel, Chad Green, Matt Koch, Kyle McGrath, Will Smith, Nick Solak, and Tim Herrin from Indiana.

MISSISSIPPI STATE

With leading the catchers and working with the hitters, Cheesebrough helped guide the Diamond Dawgs to the fourth most homers in program history during the 2023 season when they hit 91. Catcher Ross Highfill became the first player since Brent Rooker in 2017 to hit three home runs in a single game on March 11 against Lipscomb.

In 2022 Cheesebrough mentored Logan Tanner to become a second round MLB Draft Pick in 2022. With Tanner being selected in the second-round with pick 55, he became the highest-drafted catcher out of Mississippi State. Behind the coaching of Chessebrough, Tanner became a second-team All-SEC selection and an SEC All-Defensive Team honoree.

Helping guide the Diamond Dawgs to its sixth season with 50 or more wins and the program's first National Championship, Cheesebrough guided Logan Tanner to First Team All-Southeastern Conference honors, along with being named to the SEC Newcomer Team. Tanner finished third on the team with a .287 batting average a led the team with 15 home runs. Following the College World Series, Tanner was named to the All-Tournament Team after seeing him hit .308 and drive in six runs in the College World Series.

While the 2020 season was cut short due to the COVID-19 pandemic, the Diamond Dawgs saw a pair of hitters drafted in the first round. Justin Foscue was taken by the Texas Rangers with the 14th overall pick, while Jordan Westburg was the 30th overall selection by the Baltimore Orioles. Add in second-rounder JT Ginn to the New York Mets, and MSU tied for the most picks nationally in the first two rounds of the draft.

In his initial season at Mississippi State, Cheesebrough tutored Dustin Skelton to a career year that saw the backstop drafted in the 18th round of the MLB Draft after setting career marks in every major offensive category. Skelton was tabbed second-team All-South Region by the American Baseball Coaches Association after hitting .314 with ten home runs and 55 RBIs.

His catching corps threw out an SEC-best 29 potential base stealers in 2019, including 20 by Skelton. The 20 base runners caught stealing ranked No. 2 in the conference, were sixth among Power 5 catchers and were more than any Pac-12 team threw out in 2019.

The 2019 campaign saw Cheesebrough help the Dawgs offense reach new heights, as the squad piled up a nation's-leading 166 doubles – the first MSU team to lead the country in an offensive category in program history – and also ranked among the top five in hits (2nd; 755), runs scored (4th; 530) and batting average (5th; .315). The doubles total also ranks No. 4 all-time in SEC history.

INDIANA

During his time at Indiana, Cheesebrough served as the programs hitting and catching coach. He was also the program's recruiting coordinator and helped the Hoosiers land three top-35 classes in four seasons. Overall, 12 Hoosier hitters earned All-Big Ten honors during his time in Bloomington and eight garnered Big Ten All-Freshman Team laurels.

In 2018, Cheesebrough helped infielder Matt Gorski and utility player Matt Lloyd earn first-team All-Big Ten, while rookie infielder Drew Ashley brought home all-freshman team honors after hitting .365 in Big Ten play. Catcher Ryan Fineman tied for the Big Ten lead with 21 runners caught stealing during the 2018 campaign, while the 30 stolen bases against were the fourth fewest among every day starting catchers in the conference. As a team, IU compile a 40-19 record and earn an at-large berth as the No. 2 seed in the NCAA Austin Regional. The Hoosiers led the Big Ten in slugging percentage (.448), home runs (68) and total bases (905), finished second in batting average (.284) and third in runs scored (360). That season, Indiana was ranked by at least one of the major publications for 15 of the 16 weeks of the regular season, including nine-straight weeks in the top 15 on its way to just the eighth 40-win season in program history.

Indiana found itself in the NCAA Tournament field again in 2017, finishing with 34 victories and finished just two games out of first place in the conference. Four newcomers earned all-conference honors as Matt Lloyd was named second team All-Big Ten, while Matt Gorski (first base), Jeremy Houston (shortstop) and Cal Krueger (starting pitcher) each earned Freshman All-Big Ten laurels.

Cheesebrough helped lure a nationally ranked class for the 2016 season, with many of those recruits playing a key role on the field. Scotty Bradley, Ryan Fineman and Luke Miller each earned spots on the Freshman All-Big Ten team, with Miller also honored as a freshman All-American by Collegiate Baseball. He tutored Fineman, who started 50 of Indiana's 56 games at catcher and had just 23 stolen bases against, which was third fewest in the conference.

In his first season with the Hoosiers, the program reached its third-straight NCAA Regional and owned a 12-5 vs. ranked opponents, including five top-15 wins. Cheesebrough helped guide a Hoosier offense that ranked in the top five in the Big Ten in eight statistical categories. Working with the team's catchers, he tutored Brad Hartong, who led the Big Ten in runners caught stealing (21), while hitting .303 with 70 hits and 13 doubles. Hartong was drafted by the Minnesota Twins in the 2015 MLB Draft.

LOUISVILLE

Cheesebrough returned to Louisville prior to 2012 and helped Louisville notch back-to-back College World Series appearances in 2013 and 2014. The Cardinals reached the NCAA Tournament during each of his three seasons on staff, winning 142 games during that stretch.

In each of his three seasons on the Louisville coaching staff, Cheesebrough worked with the Cardinals' catchers, including Kyle Gibson, who was named to the 2012 NCAA Tucson Regional All-Tournament Team after hitting .417 with two doubles in four games. While at Louisville, Cheesebrough worked with Will Smith, and helped the future Major League player became a catcher.

Overall, 18 student-athletes were drafted during Cheesebrough's time on the Louisville staff, with seven of his pupils reaching the major league level. Six Cardinals claimed All-America honors, three grabbed Freshman All-America honors and 27 were tabbed all-conference, including American Athletic Conference Player of the Year Jeff Gardner.

PITTSBURGH

In his one season at Pittsburgh in 2011, Cheesebrough worked with catcher Kevan Smith, who earned first-team All-BIG EAST honors while hitting .397 with 11 home runs and 56 RBI. Smith, who was also a quarterback for the football team, became the second Panther in program history with 80 hits, 50 RBIs and ten home runs in the same season, and he was taken by the Chicago White Sox in the seventh round of the MLB Draft.

After winning the seventh-most games in program history in 2011, a program-record six student-athletes were taken in the MLB Draft. Ray Black joined Smith as a seventh-round selection to give the 2011 team a school-record-tying two picks in the first ten rounds of the draft.

PERSONAL

As a two-year letter winner at Louisville, Cheesebrough helped the Cardinals advance to NCAA Regionals in two straight seasons, including an appearance in the 2009 NCAA Super Regional. Louisville won back-to-back BIG EAST Tournament titles and claimed the 2009 BIG EAST regular season title during his time on campus.

Cheesebrough is married to the former Brittany Collins and the two have two daughters. The Rowlett, Texas, native owns a Bachelor of Science in education from the University of Louisville.

The largest on-campus facility in college baseball, Dudy Noble Field will see the 58th season of Mississippi State baseball at its current site in 2024. With over 1,700 games played at the venue, the Diamond Dawgs have a .725 winning percentage at the facility, which received a $68-million upgrade prior to the 2019 season.

The field is named in honor of longtime MSU baseball coach, athletics director and ABCA Hall of Famer Clarke Randolph "Dudy" Noble. On April 27, 1998 the facility was renamed Dudy Noble Field, Polk-DeMent Stadium, honoring another ABCA Hall of Famer, former Bulldog skipper Ron Polk, and the late Gordon DeMent, a successful businessman and longtime fan of the Diamond Dawgs from Indianola, Mississippi.

THE ORIGIN

From 1929 until 1964, Mississippi State hosted its baseball games at the original on-campus venue, Hardy Field, which was located several hundred yards to the south of the Bulldogs' home football venue, Davis Wade Stadium at Scott Field. The baseball field was closed following the 1964 season to make way for the construction of Dorman Hall and for the next two seasons the Diamond Dawgs played their home games at Redbird Park in Columbus, Mississippi, capturing SEC titles both seasons at their temporary home.

The tin-roofed grandstand and 2,000-seat bleachers from the original Dudy Noble Field were transported to the stadium's present site, which became playable for the 1967 season. Since that time, facility enhancements have followed at a steady pace to make the "Carnegie Hall of College Baseball" one of the finest all-around facilities on the road to Omaha. Among with numerous upgrades, the current site has seen two complete demolitions and reconstructions, the latest occurring during a three-year span from 2017-2019 and opening prior to the start of the 2019 campaign.

LEADING THE ATTENDANCE BOOM

With a laundry list of legendary names on its all-time roster, it comes as no surprise that Mississippi State ranks among the nation's attendance leader's year in and year out. The Dudy Noble Field faithful have sold out the reserved seating allotment every season since 1987.

Along with routinely hosting some of the largest crowds in the SEC, 11 of the last 13 three-day Super Bulldog Weekend series have drawn more than 25,000 fans.

MSU eclipsed the 200,000 mark in paid attendance at Dudy Noble Field for six-straight seasons between 2012-17, marking the first such occurrence in the program's history. Over the past two seasons, MSU has eclipsed the 300,000 mark in paid attendance, which had never been done before in back-to-back seasons. In 2013, the Diamond Dawgs' five-millionth fan walked through the turnstiles at Dudy Noble Field. Since home attendance figures were charted starting in 1976, the "Carnegie Hall of College Baseball" has seen 7,616,815 fans rush through the gates.

In 23 of the last 24 seasons, Mississippi State has averaged 6,000 fans per game, including a record average of 11,094 during the 2023 campaign, the second-best mark in the nation. Overall, State has eclipsed the 200,000-fan mark 15 times since 2002, with a school-record 373,784 viewing the 2019 home schedule.

Of the top 25 all-time college baseball on-campus attendances, Dudy Noble Field finds itself on the list 23 times, most notably owning the all-time on-campus attendance record of 16,423 on April 15, 2023. The Bulldogs own 14 of the top 15 marks and 19 of the top 20 marks, in NCAA on-campus history and are the only NCAA baseball program to boast on-campus attendances of 14,000 or more. The five largest NCAA Super Regional crowds have all assembled in Starkville, Mississippi, as well.

From April 14-16, 2023, the Bulldog faithful flooded the gates at Dudy Noble Field to the tune or 43,986 fans for a three-game series versus Ole Miss. The nearly 44,000 fans on the weekend set an NCAA on-campus attendance record for a three-game series.

The aura of Mississippi State baseball at Dudy Noble Field is certainly not confined to the loyal legions in the impressive grandstand, pro-style luxury sky suites or luxurious Left Field Lofts.

In fact, some of the more highly-prized seats at Bulldog baseball games are found beyond the outfield fence in the Left Field Lounge™. Waiting lists greet those seeking to purchase one of the 96 outfield lounges in the iconic two-level outfield tailgate.

Once a colorful assortment of pickup trucks, motor homes, and trailers — most equipped with barbecue grills — lined the outfield fence, completing a circle of humanity at Dudy Noble Field. Now, the permanent lounge spaces are connected to the concourse, allowing everyone to stroll through and experience the iconic lounge culture.

What began in the late 1960s as a popular gathering spot for baseball-loving MSU supporters now forms college baseball's largest tailgate party.

FACILITY EXPANSION

Over the past five decades many projects have commenced at the current site, including a pair of demolitions and countless upgrades to "The Dude." Of the multiple renovations and advancements, the park was demolished and reconstructed in 1987 and 2018.

Mississippi State hosted its first SEC Baseball Tournament and NCAA Regional in 1979, winning both and advancing to the program's second College World Series, setting attendance marks while opening eyes along the way.

Crowds mushroomed further in the 1980s, as future Major League stars Jeff Brantley, Will Clark, Rafael Palmeiro and Bobby Thigpen led the 1985 Bulldogs to SEC and regional championships, earning MSU's highest national finish at the time, a tie for third place at the College World Series.

The first upgrade to the current site came in 1971, thanks to the generosity of the late E.B. "Dutch" McCool, a former MSU baseball student-athlete and one of the founding fathers of Holiday Inn, Inc., as MSU took the lead in the Southeastern Conference with the installation of a lighting system. The advent of night baseball in Starkville helped build a solid fan base.

Drainage and irrigation systems and an expanded scoreboard with an animation-equipped message center, new batting ranges and an infield tarp became the stadium's next improvements.

It became apparent that support for baseball at State had out-grown the cozy confines of "The Dude" in the mid 1980s. Two years after that magical '85 season, Mississippi State unveiled an impressive $3.5 million project that made Dudy Noble Field the biggest baseball venue in the Southeastern Conference.

In 1986, the stadium was demolished and rebuilt in less than nine months to be ready for the 1987 season opener. The new venue featured an impressive concrete grandstand structure with 3,700 maroon theater-style seats, an elevated press box, restrooms and ticket, souvenir and concession facilities. The team clubhouse featured a spacious 40-locker dressing room and team area. A pair of 1,500-seat bleachers that once overlooked the end zones at Scott Field, the home of MSU's football Bulldogs, were refurbished and installed along the foul lines, raising seating capacity at Dudy Noble Field to 6,700. The facility was later chosen by Sports Illustrated as the best place to watch college baseball, and it helped ignite a drive to update baseball facilities throughout the SEC and beyond.

The expanded capacity at the stadium also triggered an increase in annual baseball season ticket sales to more than 5,600, virtually assuring Mississippi State's place among national leaders in college baseball attendance annually.

A second permanent concession stand was added in 1989, and a year later, the cinder warning track at the outfield fence was extended to completely encircle the playing surface. That project, along with the installation of a six-foot high padded outfield fence, was made possible by a donation from former MSU All-American and Major League Baseball standout Will Clark.

Best-selling author, MSU alumnus and avid State baseball fan John Grisham donated funding for the next project. In 1993, Grisham's generosity paved the way for the indoor batting tunnel under the first base grandstand. In August 1998, construction got under way on the ambitious project to add 18 sky suites and more than 600 additional chairback seats in the grandstand. With the project completed prior to the 2000 season, the permanent seating capacity at Dudy Noble Field eclipsed the 7,000 mark.

Prior to the start of the 2003 season, 46-foot major league foul poles were added. In 2004, the upgrades to the facility included a new state-of-the-art scoreboard, courtesy of the Henry Mize Foundation, was installed along with new fencing and gates surrounding the main grandstand.

The landscape surrounding the nation's largest on-campus facility grew prior to the 2005 campaign with the completion of the impressive Palmeiro Center and the baseball coaches office complex.

A massive 68,000-square foot, climate-controlled turf indoor practice facility, the Palmeiro Center is located adjacent to Dudy Noble Field. The spacious, $3.8 million facility was made possible by a generous lead gift of former Bulldog great Rafael Palmeiro and his wife Lynne. The structure features a regulation infield practice area, additional training space and three retractable batting cages.

Nestled between the Palmeiro Center and "The Dude", the baseball coaches complex was made possible by contributions from former Bulldog players Jeff Brantley, Will Clark, Eric DuBose, Maholm, Paul, Jay Powell and Bobby Thigpen and former MSU manager James "Bo" McKinnis.

Mississippi State's baseball complex received a boost with the addition of the Bryce Griffis Boardroom, a $1.5 million, meeting/banquet hall extension on the south end of the Palmeiro Center. The facility features banquet seating for approximately 350.

From 2009-12, facility upgrades totaling more than $2 million include an expanded state-of-the-art high definition video board, the addition of a new drainage and irrigation system, a new carpet of natural sod and infield dirt, and expanded dugouts.

Even the grandstand got a bit grander with a resurfacing and repainting project. The endeavor was topped off with all-new cup holder-equipped maroon chairback seats. Prior to the start of the 2012 campaign, work was completed on the new sound system. The 36,000-watt amplification system evenly distributed sound to a 78-speaker system to amplify the atmosphere at Dudy Noble Field.

The second demolition at the current site occurred following the 2017 season and the $68 million facility opened its gates for the 2019 campaign. Architect Wier Boerner Allin, along with consultants Populous and famed stadium architect/State alum Janet Marie Smith designed the project, while construction manager ICM and general contractor JESCO Construction, Inc. oversaw the construction.

Covering 12 acres of land on the Mississippi State University campus, the 230,000 square foot facility carries on Dudy Noble Field's legacy as the "Carnegie Hall of College Baseball." Installation of the second largest scoreboard in college baseball, measuring 43 feet wide by 60 feet high, started the project in 2017. The board, which was the largest in college baseball upon instillation, is larger than boards owned by three Major League Baseball teams. The addition of 96 permanent Left Field Lounge rigs encircling the outfield followed during the fall of 2018.

The concourse and lower-level grandstands were in place for the 2018 season, with the Diamond Suites, upper-deck reserved seating area and three unique club areas – Farm Bureau Triple Crown Club, Charlie and Dana Stephenson Omaha Club and The Rooftop Club –were completed prior to the 2019 campaign. The newest version of Dudy Noble Field also features increased restroom facilities and concession points of sale.

The player spaces also received an upgrade, expanding to cover 18,000 square feet underneath the facility. The fully-equipped Bruce and Julie Martin Locker Room includes an embedded equipment room, houses 40 wooden lockers and features an oversized, dimensional halo-lit '85 Script Mississippi State sign suspended overhead in the middle of the room.

The more spacious locker room includes an attached training room with whirlpool and fully-functional fueling station. The Mitch Moreland Hitting Tunnel, which is equipped with HitTrax, and Turner & Gloria Wingo Team Lounge are easily accessed from the home dugout, with the eye-popping player entrance and Hassell H. Franklin Omaha Room greeting players as they enter the facility. The Pat McMahon Pitching Lab is also housed under the stadium, featuring arm care and conditioning equipment, one oversized turfed mound with three pitching rubbers and state of the art video equipment.

DIAMOND DAWG TIMELINE

May 2 — Mississippi A&M, behind team captain W.J. (Bill) Jennings, defeats Durant 7-2 in the first baseball game in MSU history. Jennings, who holds the distinction of being credited as the first man in Southern college baseball who could throw a curve ball, baffles batters from all over the South in claiming A&M's first 12 wins. His composite four-year record, during which time he pitched every game for the Maroons, is a sparkling 12-1.

1893

October 12 — A&M defeats Ole Miss, 6-3, in its first intercollegiate baseball game, which begins the longest baseball rivalry for both schools.

1909

April 11 — Willie Mitchell hurls the first perfect game in Mississippi A&M history by striking out 26 LSU batters and helping the Maroons slip past the Tigers 1-0 in the second game of a doubleheader in Baton Rouge, Louisiana. Mitchell finishes with a 6-1 worksheet and dazzles his opponents by striking out 97 batters in 56 1/3 innings. Of his six victories, Mitchell throws one no-hitter, two one-hitters, two two-hitters and one six-hitter.

1918

April 5-6 — Maroon hurlers R.H. Pepper and J.T. Peatross shut down Mississippi College by tossing back-to-back no-hitters. Pepper opens the two-game series by allowing the Choctaws only four walks in a 5-0 A&M win. Pepper's shining accomplishment is overshadowed the following day as Peatross pitches only the second perfect game in MSU history, downing Mississippi College, 1-0.

1920

April 5 — Legendary Dudy Noble Field namesake Clarke Randolph "Dudy" Noble coaches his first game at his alma mater, a 5-3 loss to the University of Illinois. Noble will go on to coach at MSU for 26 years, during which time he compiles a 267-201-9 record and wins three Southern Intercollegiate Athletic Association championships.

1924

May 13 — Two baseball rarities occur in the same game during a campus contest against Ole Miss. Not only does A&M retire the Rebels on three straight pitches in one inning, but shortstop C.S. "Buddy" Myer gives the Maroons a much-needed boost by cranking out a grand slam to lead his team to a 6-4 victory. Myer's shot is believed to be the first grand slam in the history of MSU. Myer would go on to play 17 years in Major League Baseball with Washington and Boston, hitting for a career average of .303.

1947

April 18 — LSU outfielder Joe Bill Adcock launches a shot an estimated 500 feet into the MSU swimming pool at the "old" Dudy Noble Field. Adcock would play only one season at LSU before playing 16 years in the major leagues, but his tremendous blow is still talked about by long-time Bulldog baseball fans.

1948

May 31 — R.P. "Doc" Patty guides the Bulldogs to their first Southeastern Conference championship in his initial season as head coach. MSU defeats Auburn in the championship playoff, three games to none, thanks to the efforts of All-SEC outfielder Johnny Grace, who led the Bulldogs with a .375 batting average.

1949

June — Mississippi State College wins its second consecutive SEC title by downing Kentucky three games to one in the title series. All-conference infielder Alex Grammas and brother Pete Grammas were crowd favorites in helping lead the Bulldogs to a 19-6 overall record. Alex would go on to play 10 seasons in Major League Baseball with the St. Louis Cardinals, Cincinnati Reds and Chicago Cubs, before coaching for the Detroit Tigers.

May 9 — Outfielder Del Unser belts three round-trippers and picks up a double to set a then-single-game team record for total bases with 14. Unser spreads his blasts around, sending a shot to all three fields, as the Bulldogs fall to Ole Miss, 10-7. The power outburst gives Unser seven homers, all coming in the last six regular-season games.

May 22 — Behind conference hits leader Mike Burns, the Bulldogs top Auburn in the SEC Championship Series, winning two out of three games. After falling to the Tigers in the series opener, MSU battles back with the strong pitching of Ken Tatum, who leads the Bulldogs to 10-1 and 10-2 victories to claim the conference crown. The title marked the first of four won under the guidance of coaching-great Paul Gregory.

April 2 — Pitcher James Carroll hurls 14 innings of four-hit baseball as he out-duels Alabama's Kenny Stabler, 2-1. All-American outfielder Del Unser scores the winning run with two outs in the bottom of the 14th.

May 14 — Right-hander Ken Tatum starts on only two days rest and shuts down the Tennessee Volunteers, 9-3, giving the Bulldogs their second-consecutive SEC championship. The game marked MSU's final appearance at Redbird Park in Columbus, which for two seasons served as the home for of MSU Baseball while the "new" Dudy Noble Field is being built.

May 5 — Sophomore left-hander Gene Henderson stymies Arkansas in the nightcap with a no-hit performance that gives the Bulldogs, ranked fifth nationally, a doubleheader sweep versus the Razorbacks, 6-0 and 1-0. Henderson, along with conference ERA-leader Dennis Hall (0.63) and wins-leader Brantley Jones (9-0), carries MSU to its fifth SEC title. State drops the first game of the best-of-three championship series against Tennessee but rebounds to claim the final two contests, 4-3 and 1-0, at Dudy Noble Field.

1971

May 14 — All-American third baseman Phil Still and All-SEC pitcher Mike Proffitt help lead the Bulldogs to 5-1 and 3-1 victories against Vanderbilt for their second-consecutive SEC title on the way to a 32-12 record and the school's first appearance in the College World Series. After defeating the Commodores in two straight games for the SEC crown, State downs Georgia Tech, 5-2, in the NCAA District III championship game in Gastonia, North Carolina, earn its spot in Omaha.

1972

April 14 — Dudy Noble Field hosts its first night game thanks to a new lighting system. MSU alumnus E.B. "Dutch" McCool, a former teammate of coach Paul Gregory, donates the lights to his alma mater, allowing the Bulldogs to play games at night when it is more convenient for fans to attend. McCool was one of the original founders of Holiday Inn.

1976

March 8 — Legendary Mississippi State head coach Ron Polk wins his first career game as the Bulldog skipper, 4-0, versus Louisiana Tech. MSU finishes the season 28-17, which begins a streak of 32 consecutive winning seasons.

1977

March 19 — Junior outfielder Nat "Buck" Showalter begins the season with a modest six-game hitting streak in which he hits .700 (14-for-20) on his way to posting the MSU single-season record for batting average. Showalter, who later becomes one of only 22 Major League Baseball skippers to manage 3,000 games, hits an SEC-leading .459 as he garners numerous All-America honors.

1979

May 14 — Down 11-9 with one out in the bottom of the eighth, designated hitter Rick Dixon launches a slider nearly 400 feet over the left-center field fence for a three-run homer in the SEC Tournament final. The win gives fourth-year head coach Ron Polk his first conference title in the first SEC Tournament held at Dudy Noble Field.

May 27 — After falling to nationally-ranked New Orleans in the opening game, the Bulldogs successfully sweep through the loser's bracket to claim the NCAA South Regional. An 8-6 win versus Murray State in the championship game of the first NCAA Regional at Dudy Noble Field lifted MSU to its second appearance at the College World Series.

March 15 — Junior first baseman Bruce Castoria sets a then-school-record and ties the SEC mark by driving in 10 runs against UNLV in Las Vegas. Castoria, who would set another school record by cranking four grand slams on the year, hits his second of the season against the Rebels, along with a three-run shot, an RBI single and two walks with the bases loaded to account for his 10 RBIs.

May 24 — State jumps out to an early six-run lead and holds off a late rally by East Tennessee State to win the NCAA Atlantic Regional in Clemson, South Carolina, 6-5. The Dawgs would go on to finish fifth nationally at the College World Series.

February 25 — Freshman Rafael Palmeiro slaps the first pitch he sees as a collegian over the right field fence for a three-run homer on Opening Day against Mississippi College. Palmeiro, who would later pile up 3,020 hits and 569 home runs in a remarkable 20-year pro career, proceeds to hit safely in his first 20 games en route to a team-high and SEC-best .406 average.

April 2 — Future major league slugger Will Clark hits his first collegiate home run, an eighth-inning grand slam to straight-away center field, to help lead MSU to a 27-10 pounding versus rival Ole Miss.
